

ACCUSED OF THEFT AFTER 29 YEARS IN CITY SERVICE

"I Am an Honest Man!" Declares Thomas J. Deanehy After He Is Admitted to Bail.

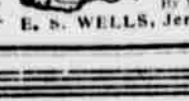

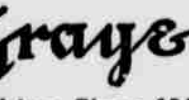

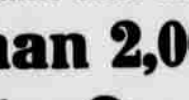

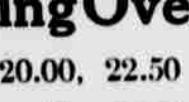

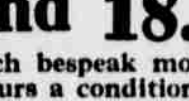

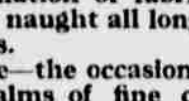

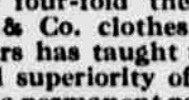

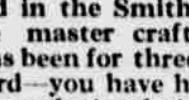

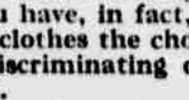

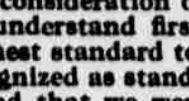

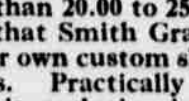

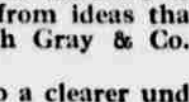

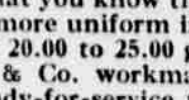

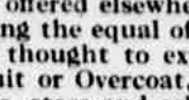

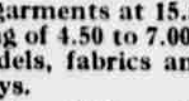

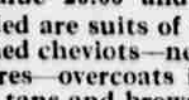

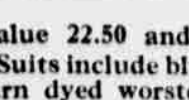

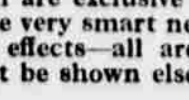

There was a profound shock in the tax department at Borough Hall Brooklyn today when it developed that serious charges had been made against Thomas J. Deanehy, twenty-nine years in the municipal service and one of the oldest employees in point of continuous work in the Greater City.

For a month or more Deanehy had been sick at his home, No. 625 Eighth avenue, Brooklyn. Three weeks ago, so it now develops, the Kings County Jury returned indictments against him—on one alleging grand larceny in the first degree and two grand larceny in the second degree. Every effort was made to keep the news from the accused man. Detectives were set to watch his house with orders to arrest him when he had recovered. Somehow, though, Deanehy learned what had happened and today, he left his bed, although feeble and shaky, and eluding the watchers made his way to the District Attorney's office and formally surrendered himself.

Deanehy has been for some years clerk to the auctioneer in the sales bureau of the tax office. It was Controller Fremdergast who first discovered a seeming shortage of $1,000.94 in the receipts of money derived from sales. Apparently there were three separate transactions which went to make up the total of the deficit. It is now understood that William R. Monahan, the cashier to whom Deanehy made his returns, gave the testimony before the Grand Jury which led to the handing in of the indictments. After he had surrendered himself Deanehy was taken before County Judge Fawcett in court, accompanied by a lawyer whom he had retained by telephone before quitting his home. Judge Fawcett admitted him to bail in $2,000. Deanehy, who seemed deeply distressed, made a short statement:

"I am an honest man. I always have been," he said. "And I know my friends will never believe that at the age of sixty, with most of my life behind me, and nothing to leave my children except a decent name, I'd turn thief. I never touched a cent of that mislaid money or any other money that didn't belong to me. If there is anything wrong with my accounts it will be found to be faulty bookkeeping or else some other man is the guilty one. All I ask is a fair investigation and a fair trial."

Deanehy's friends, many of them prominent in secret society and political circles, came swarming to the Borough Hall as soon as they heard of his trouble, declaring their belief in his probity and offering to furnish bond for him in almost any amount that might be required. He has been active as an Irish patriot all his life, and he took a hand in the Fenian movement of 1867. He is a widower with several children, all grown.

Smith Gray & Co.

Foremost Clothiers Since 1845

More than 2,000

Suits and Spring Overcoats

Extreme values at 20.00, 22.50 and 25.00

15.50 and 18.50

Here are values which bespeak more forcefully than can any words of ours a condition mastered—the effecting of a combination of fabric, style and workmanship that sets at naught all long established ideas of fine clothes values.

Primarily the purpose—the occasion of this pioneering step into the realms of fine clothes value creation—is to increase four-fold the number of wearers of Smith Gray & Co. clothes, because an experience of sixty-six years has taught us that once the goodness and general superiority of Smith Gray & Co. clothes are known, a permanent patron results. Designed and tailored in the Smith Gray & Co. tailoring plant by those master craftsmen whose style and workmanship has been for three generations the acknowledged standard—you have here the same distinctive style, the same exclusive designs in fabrics of the higher grades—you have, in fact, all that has made Smith Gray & Co. clothes the choice for sixty-six years of the more discriminating of the better dressed men of New York.

It is but just in the consideration of these wonderful values that you understand first of all that every fabric is of the highest standard to be found in garments which are recognized as standard values at 20.00, 22.50 and 25.00, and that we were enabled to offer them to you at less than 20.00 to 25.00 is directly attributable to the fact that Smith Gray & Co. garments are produced in our own custom shops and sold through our own stores. Practically every fabric offered at these values is exclusive in design and woven especially for us from ideas that will not be found outside the Smith Gray & Co. stores until next season.

It is essential, too, to a clearer understanding of these wonderful values that you know that the tailoring is of higher quality, more uniform in its fineness, than is usually found in 20.00 to 25.00 garments, because the Smith Gray & Co. workmanship is the absolute standard of ready-for-service tailoring, and in few, if any, garments offered elsewhere at 20.00 to 25.00 can you find tailoring the equal of this.

If it has been your thought to expend 20.00 to 25.00 for your Spring Suit or Overcoat, come to the nearest Smith Gray & Co. store and ask to be shown these wonderful special garments at 15.50 and 18.50—they mean to you a saving of 4.50 to 7.00 the garment.

There are sizes, models, fabrics and designs for men, young men and boys. 15.50 for standard value 20.00 and 22.50 Spring Coats and Suits. Included are suits of velours, cassimere and worsted finished chevrons—new grays, tans, browns and neat mixtures—overcoats include black, Oxford and smart grays, tans and browns in exclusive weaves and designs.

18.50 for standard value 22.50 and 25.00 Spring Suits and Spring Coats. Suits include blue serge of fine all Australian stock, yarn dyed worsteds and high-grade velours—nearly all are exclusive and advanced styles. Overcoats include very smart new grays, tans, browns and neat dark effects—all are advanced in style, and many will not be shown elsewhere for another season.
